

SMILE BIG & SMILE OFTEN

At sundown, it lights up

You'll find intimate venues for music, dancing and theatre. And wide open spaces for live concerts, festivals and sporting events—whether it's in grand auditoriums or under the stars. With so much, so close, in this easy-to-navigate and highly affordable city, the night is definitely calling. Some local faves: Dinner and a movie just got a whole lot more interesting—with everything from indie documentary to blockbuster thrillers, not to mention theatre, comedy and music—all within walking distance of the waterfront. Good songs, suds and stories can be found up, down and all over town. Want a craft ale and even craftier songwriting? A classic martini bar? The new hotspot or the charming old? Generous servings of activity and ambiance are always on tap.

Old-fashioned romance is always just a stone's throw away. Especially when you're strolling one of the abundant and safe city parks, like the Lakewalk, Rose Gardens or Park Point. For a scenic starry night drive, head west on Skyline Parkway or east on the shore to Brighton Beach.

